Prom Patrons Announced; The Play Cast Chosen

Admission $5.00 — Tickets on Sale at Treasurer's Office or From Members of the Committee.

FANCY PROGRAM PROMISED

Jubilee Will Exceed All Former Efforts — Interfraternity Tea New Feature.

The Patrons and Patronesses selected for the Junior Promenade have accepted the invitations extended them, according to Earle Manson, chairman of the Prom Committee. The list includes: President and Mrs. Howard L. Hodgkins; Elmer Louis Kayser, Secretary of the University, and Mrs. Kayser; George Neely Henning, Dean of the School of Graduate Studies, and Miss Henning; William A. Wilbur, Dean of Columbian College, and Mrs. Wilbur; William Carl Ruefeger, Dean of the Teachers College, and Mrs. Rudiger; William Cline Borden, Dean of the Medical School, and Mrs. Borden; Merton Leroy Ferson, Dean of the Law School, and Mrs. Ferson; Hugh Miller, Dean of the College of Engineering; Henry E. Kalusowski, Dean of the College of Pharmacy; Professor and Mrs. Henry Grattan Doyle, and Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Morse.

Tickets are on sale for the Prom, which is to be held in the ballroom of the New City Club, 1320 G Street, on the evening of Friday, February 23rd, beginning at 10 p. m. The dance is the annual festive affair offered each spring, which gives opportunity for all the boys to strut their "latest" and all the ladies a chance to show their best.

The dance this year will come up to the traditional standard. Fancy programs have been ordered, and will be on hand for the evening's mirth. The committee has bought leather favors for those attending, card cases for the men, and too-doors, or powder horns, for the ladies. Each and every person who attends the Prom will be assured of receipt of a favor and a chance to share in the novelties these in charge have arranged, but which are being kept very secret.

Meyer Davis' "Famous Nine," the aggregation of harmony, which offered such palatable jazz for the "Hop of Hops," will be on hand to play again. They will start the heavy work precisely at 10 and play until 1 a. m., when they will be relieved, or may be their number will be augmented by the equally famous and highly-touted Le Paradis musicians. These latter will play until 2 a. m. or later, depending on the cash receipts and the "pep" of those attending. Punch will be served throughout the evening.

Reception Starts Frolic.

The Junior Reception will start the big doings at the Raleigh on the afternoon of February 22nd, in the ballroom of the hotel.

Precisely at 5 o'clock, following the annual Mid-winter Convocation, the aggregation of the Meyer Davis' bunch, known as the "Better Nine," though less in number, will begin their weird cacophonies. Dancing at this free party will last until 8, with short intermissions for enjoying punch and the music of the Glee Club.

The patrons of this party will be those of the Prom.

Whirligig Tea Sunday.

The Whirligig (Rotating) Tea, sponsored by the Interfraternity Association, will take place on Sunday afternoon, the 25th, beginning at the Sigma Chi House, 230 p. m. The guests will assemble at the Sig House, and from thence proceed to the other frat houses in accordance with a schedule which will be announced later.

The Junior Play on the night of the 26th will conclude the social affairs. (Following which will be a general scratching of heads and counting of money and passing of bucks.)

Bottleheim, Sells Tickets.

The ticket sale for the Prom is under the general direction of Edwin S. Bottleheim, of the Law School. The tickets may be had from the following members of the committee: Earle Manson, chairman; J. F. Spoerri, Francis Brown, Maxine Rolfe, Myrtle Yost, Eddie Pardoe, Bill Ballenger, Arthur Roselund, Adelaide Makens, Ed St. John, Ned Loop, Beatrice Clephane, Marian Barker, Mary Brown, Milton Summers, Gene Thomas, Bob Armstrong, Charles Jones, Leslie French, and Lydia Shepard. Tickets are $5.00.

Len Hall, Dramatic Editor of the News, to Assist in the Directing of the Junior Play.

PLAN FOR SHORT RUN.

Plot Deals With Efforts of a Young Man to Teach School Girls Charm Alone.

Leonard Hall, dramatic editor of the Washington Daily News, is assisting William S. Becker in the production of the Junior Play, the "Charm School," to be presented the night of February 26th. Mr. Hall is well versed in the dramatic art, and his presence is of invaluable aid to the rehearsals which are now going on.

The cast for the play has been selected from among those students who tried out last week. The director, Becker, has picked out two for each part, and will shortly decide on the personnel of the group who will act on the night of the performance.

The "Charm School" is a three-act comedy from the pen of Alice Duer Miller. The action centers about five highly respectable and likewise highly impetuous young men, who find themselves without funds or future. One of the five suddenly inherits a girls' school from a loved but deceased aunt, and decides to manage it according to his own theory.

His big idea is to teach the girls charm. He does, to the extent of making a very sweet romance and adding argument to the idea that what a woman wants she will get, whether or which.

The Junior Play Committee, in charge of Henry James, has as yet failed to pick out the place for the play. Those places where the committee has investigated are unfit, for one reason or another, but it is certain that a place will be decided on within the coming week. Those assisting Mr. James are: Janeiro Brooks, Theresa Lawrence, and Mildred Von-Eiff.

The play, if a success financially, will probably play more than one night in the city. It is planned to have a short out-of-town trip.

The following people were selected by Director Wm. S. Becker to present the play in Junior Week, entitled "The Charm School," written by Alice Duer Miller:

Austin Bevans; John R. Dewitt; David Mackenzie; G. W. Pryor; George Boyd; Foster Hagan; Jim Simpkins; Chas. Cooper; Tim Simpkins; Louis Siebold; Homer Johns; Kenneth Bruner; Elsie Benedotti; Geraldine Barlow; Miss Hays; Esther Scott; Miss Curtis; Lonnelle Davison; Sally Boyd; Dorothy Bartley; Muriel Doughty; Marian Barker; Ethel Spelvin; Lorena Dorr; Alex Mercier; Winifred Hull; Lillian Stafford; Bess Bartley; Madge Kent; Martha Dunham; Charlotte Gray; Ada G. Dorr; Dotsie; Neva Edmiston.

Understudies—David: M. P. Lehman; Jim: M. Wright; Tim: R. C. Weber; Johns: M. R. Malone.

General—Julia Cooke, Elizabeth Bigos, Sarah French Smith, Edna Kilpatrick, Imogene Egerton, Janeiro Brooks.

Y. W. GIVES PARTY TONIGHT

All girls of the University are cordially invited to attend a party to be held in the Chapel on Friday, February 9, at 8 p. m. The affair is given by the Y. W. C. A. primarily for the Freshmen, but all Co-eds are urged to attend. Get-together games will be played and good refreshments served. The main object of the party is to have the girls become better acquainted and have a good time. Don't forget the date, February 9, at 8 p. m.

P. D. E. FRAT HOLDS WRITING CONTEST

Rules of Contest Outlined by Grand Council of Fraternity.

FACULTY COMMITTEE.

Dean Wilbur, Profs. Croissant, Doyle, and Chace to Pass on Editorials Submitted.

Chicago, Ill., February 8th.—Rules governing Pi Delta Epsilon Intercollegiate Editorial Contest have been approved by the Fraternity's Grand Council. The unusual interest aroused by the subject, "Physical Development as a Requisite for a College Degree," has resulted in a deluge of questions.

For the information of every instructor in English or Rhetoric, and the student body in general, the contest rules are printed herewith:

1. Contest opened January 29th, 1923, and will close February 28th, 1923, at midnight.

2. Editorials submitted must not exceed 500 words.

3. Type or write legibly on one side of sheet only.

4. Write an assumed name in the upper right-hand corner of each sheet.

5. On the face of an envelope write this assumed name, inclosing a sheet of paper on which is written your own name, age, home city, class, and local college address, and telephone number.

6. Seal this envelope carefully and pin or clip it to your editorial.

7. Then hand it to your instructor in English or Rhetoric, or, if not compulsory as a classroom assignment, mail it to Robert M. Bolton, local chairman.

Editorials will then be sent directly to Cecil F. Gordon, Sigma Phi Epsilon House, Dartmouth College, Hanover, N. H.

Three prizes will be awarded to those who win the first three places in the contest. Pi Delta Epsilon's medals in gold, silver, and bronze, are circular in shape, display the antique ink-well, crossed quills, and symbols of the fraternity. The reverse side is engraved with the winner's name, date, and inscription of the contest. Thus far only four medals are in existence.

A faculty committee has been appointed at George Washington University to pass on the editorials submitted. This committee is composed of Professors De Witt Croissant, chairman; Henry G. Doyle, Daniel C. Chace, and Dean William Allen Wilbur.

Those entering the contest are requested to submit their editorials as soon as possible. This is necessary due to the short space of time intervening between now and the close of the contest.

RAZZ BERRY TO APPEAR DURING JUNIOR WEEK

Contents Enveloped in Mystery Thrills Promised Everyone.

The Razz Berry will come out sometime during Junior Week, according to members of Pi Delta Epsilon Honorary Journalistic Fraternity, but there is no information available for the general consumption at present.

Howard H. Martin, who is directing the editorial destinies of the paper, was not able to give any satisfaction to the reporter who called. He did, however, severely chasten the Hatchet reporter, who listened in on his conversation some weeks ago and then nefariously reported it verbatim in the Hatchet. He said that many were shocked to find that he used such language, especially his girl. To say nothing of Mr. Morse.

The Razz Berry will disappoint no one. Those who expect to be roasted will be accorded the satisfaction of being so roasted. Those who do not, may or may not be surprised.

The motto of the Razz Berry, according to those connected with it, will be: "Honi soit qui mal e pense," or words to that effect.

Admission to all basketball games at the Coliseum is to be one dollar or the Student Activities Ticket. A twin bill is always provided with either the Freshmen quint or the Girls' sextet playing the preliminary contest.

STUDENT COUNCIL TO MEET

The next meeting of the Student Council will be held at 8 o'clock February 20, 1923, in Lisner Hall. All members are urged to be present, as there is some very important business to be taken up.

HATCHETITES TO TACKLE FORDHAM THIS EVENING

Speedy Game Predicted—Fresh Will Meet Central Quint.

Buff and Blue tossers will meet some real opposition this evening in the Coliseum gym, when they encounter the strong Fordham team. In a preliminary contest, starting at 8 o'clock, the Hatchette Freshmen will stack up against the Central High School dribblers.

G. W. has played some very good teams this season, but it is doubtful whether any of them will come up to the standard of the Fordham aggregation. Fordham is represented in the Jesuit League of the East, along with Georgetown, Holy Cross, Boston College, and several others.

The Hatchettes are not predicting that they will emerge victorious, but will give the northerners a good battle. An excellent passing and guarding game was displayed by the G. W. men in the recent C. U. clash, and if the offense is improved to any extent, they should at least hold the Fordham combination to a low score. Coach Morse will start Klopsch and Gosnell, forwards; Brown, center; and Dally and Goldstein, guards.

An evenly matched basketball scrap will be witnessed when the Central and G. W. Freshmen clash in the first contest. Central has been playing in and out basketball all during the season, but the Blue and White tossers upset the league-leading Eastern team last Tuesday, and they seem to have hit their stride.

The G. W. Cubs are somewhat peeved by their showing against the C. U. Freshmen, and they are anxious to stage a comeback. Beeton and Woerner, forwards; Taylor, center; Joynes and Kent, guards, will probably compose the combination that will start against the high school quint.

PI DELTA EPSILON BESTOWS HONOR ON PROF. CROISSANT

Editor and Business Manager of the University Hatchet Initiated at Recent Meeting.

DeWitt Clinton Croissant, Professor of English, was elected to honorary membership in Pi Delta Epsilon Journalistic Fraternity at its meeting in Lisner Hall, Tuesday, February 6th, 1923. Dr. Croissant has accepted the invitation to membership extended to him, and has assured the fraternity of his continued interest and desire for cooperation with the student activities.

Dr. Croissant has acted as dramatic critic for the local newspapers and as publicity agent for the Simplified Spelling Bureau, of which he was field agent in 1915-16. He graduated from Princeton in 1899, receiving the degree of B. A., and returned to take his Ph. D. there in 1911. He studied at the University of Chicago in 1899-1901, and the University of Munich in 1903-04. He has been professor of English at the University since September, 1916, except for the year 1919-20, when he acted as visiting professor of English at Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Robert M. Bolton, editor of the Hatchet, and Daniel B. Lloyd, business manager of the Hatchet, were initiated into the Journalistic Fraternity at the meeting.

SPANISH CLUB TO MEET

El Circulo Espanol will hold a short business meeting in the lecture hall, first floor, rear, 2017 G Street N. W., at 8 p. m., Thursday, February 15, 1923.

All students of Spanish are urged to attend, for important business matters will be discussed.

PYRAMID ELECTS OFFICER

At a meeting of the Pyramid Honor Society, held at the Law School on Friday evening, February 2, John Paul Earnest, Jr., was elected president for the remainder of this year. James Chandler Hatcher, the former president, graduates this February and goes immediately to Alabama, where he will engage in the practice of law.

The Reverend Lucius Clark, D. D., Chancellor of American University, will act as chaplain at the exercises.

Mr. Pollard will be remembered as the recipient of the honorary degree of LL. D. in the Centennial Convocation of 1921. He was formerly Attorney General of the Commonwealth of Virginia, and later a member of the Federal Trade Commission.

Mr. Kayser has issued the following notice for the attention of the students and faculty:

Convocation: The Convocation will be held on Thursday afternoon, February 22nd, at 3 o'clock, in Memorial Continental Hall, Seventeenth and D Streets. ## LAW SCHOOL BANQUET FEBRUARY 10TH

The Law School banquet will be held at the Cairo on Saturday evening, February 10th. From the advance sale of tickets, indications seem to show that this will be the biggest and most popular Law School banquet held for many years. Miss Clare Cain, the president of the Senate, assisted by Miss Margaret Conlyn, have arranged a number of entertaining features, patterned after the Girdiron banquet of national fame.

WRESTLING SCHEDULE

The following schedule of the George Washington Wrestling team was approved by the Student Council at the meeting held January 30, 1923: February 2—Virginia Military Institute, Lexington, Va. February 19—Washington and Lee University, at home, March 1—Gallaudet College, Kendall Green.

SORORITY HONORS PATRONS

Our University of "Foggy Bottom."

At last we receive the news that our University officials have decided that we need a new building; that it is time for "A Greater George Washington" to be constructed. Every student is raising his eyes toward Heaven and breathing a prayer of thanks to the Almighty, from whom all blessings come. They realized that need long ago. We are to have "A Greater George Washington" down here in the aristocratic neighborhood, colloquially known as "Foggy Bottom."

Years ago the administration held an option on the beautiful and conveniently located Dean estate. Now the Masonic Order is going to erect a magnificent temple on that spot. Very nice for the Masons and a fitting situation for such building to be built upon. But what about the University that bears the name of America's most famous man? It is to be constructed in "Foggy Bottom," a section of Washington that is becoming more squalid every day.

Why does the Board of Trustees want to erect a nationally known institution in such surroundings? Would it not be possible to locate in a more attractive place and yet be just as convenient to those who wish to go to school in the evening so that they may work their way through college? How inspiring will the stately structures that are to be known as the George Washington University in the future appear when just across the street will stand a row of Negro shanties!

Pay Up!--Get Busy!

The call has been issued for the payment of the second installment of the Voluntary Student Activities Pledge. It was ever thus at this time of the year. How many are going to try to evade the payment of this obligation? As many as think they can get by with it. What will those that do pay up get out of it? They will receive admission to all the athletic events that remain on this year's schedule. They will also be presented with the Cherry Tree. Both are worth five dollars without the addition of the other. And yet many of those who "come across" will feel that they have not received their money's worth.

What has happened to the so-called Student Council Compulsory Tax Committee? Have they disappeared along with the movement they started? If they have not, it is high time for them to come forward and show some signs of life. It is to be supposed that they took their assigned work in all good faith, but they should keep that faith in mind and produce some results. Every college spirited student will stand back of them in any move to secure a Compulsory Tax.

It is too late for the institution of such a system of obtaining revenues for student activities this year, but it is time for them to get busy and put over a tax for next year. The only way to accomplish the task is to work. The only way for us to have enough money to finance our activities is to have such a tax, and it is up to those men to put into effect some of the splendid ideas they are hiding away in their heads. Let us have a Compulsory Tax.

Can You Write?

Pi Delta Epsilon, national journalistic fraternity, is holding an intercollegiate editorial contest in each one of the colleges that has a chapter of that fraternity. This contest is open to all the male students of those colleges.

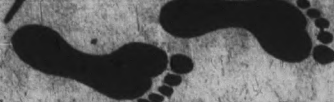

The George Washington chapter is extending the privileges of the contest to the students of this university. Here is a chance to win credit for yourself and your university by submitting an editorial to one of the members of the faculty contest committee or to the chairman of the contest.

Three prizes are offered to the winners by the Grand Council of Pi Delta Epsilon. These medals are of a very attractive design, and would serve as fitting tokens of literary proficiency.

The members of the faculty committee will pass judgment on the editorials submitted, and will determine which ones are suitable to be forwarded to the Grand Council. This will insure fair judgment.

Send yours in to-day.

Footprints

"Great men leave behind them Footprints on the sands of time."

JOHN RUSSELL MASON.

J. Russell Mason, assistant librarian of the Arts and Science Library of the University, was a graduate of Business High School in 1918, entered George Washington in September, 1919. Member of the Junior Prom Committee in 1921. Sergeant-at-arms of the Senior Class in 1922. Member of Theta Delta Chi Fraternity.

GRAHAM (BABE) FLY.

Babe Fly, president-manager of the Glee Club, graduated from Mount Vernon in 1918, where he was in the Glee Club, and a member of the basketball team. He was twice vice president of his class. Entered G. W. in 1922, and was president of the Freshman Class. Member of the Glee Club in 1922. Sergeant-at-arms of Sophomore Class in 1923. Member Sigma Phi Epsilon Fraternity and Gate and Key Honorary Club.

THE SPY

President.

Closing the phenomenal run of "Abie's Irish Rose," the Presidents begin Sunday evening the performances of "Buddies," the comedy with songs by George V. Hobart. This is a cute, clever musical comedy that made a success just after the war. The company has proven its worth by breaking all previous Washington records, and Manager Smith assures us that they will handle "Buddies" with assurance and skill. Henry Duffy and Eileen Wilson will, of course, lead their gang as usual.

Garrick.

Walter Hampden, Shakespearean star, returns to the Garrick next Monday evening, and during the week will present the following plays: "Othello," Monday and Saturday evenings; "A New Way to Pay Old Debts," Tuesday evening; "Hamlet," Wednesday and Friday evening; "Merchant of Venice," Thursday matinee; "Servant in the House," Thursday and Saturday matinee. Hampden's work is too well and favorably known to require comment.

National.

Charles Dillingham's latest musical comedy, "The Bunch and Judy," by Anne Caldwell and Jerome Kern, comes to the National Sunday evening. Although short-lived in New York, the piece is very pretty and contains in the cast Fred and Adele Astaire, Johnny and Ray Dooley, and Grace Hayes. The writers have to their credit such hits as "The Night Boat" and "Good Morning, Dearie." Certainly worth seeing.

Poli's.

They're back! McIntyre and Heath, famous black-face comedians, return Sunday with their very latest effort, a musical comedy which they call "Red Pepper." There are some pretty girls concerned and some pretty tunes for them to sing, and of course, they will dance. The stars will "do their stuff" and Washington has always liked their brand of entertainment.

The Week.

President: Last chance for you to see "Abie's Irish Rose," the Jewish Irish comedy that has shattered all Washington records with an eleven-week run. The cast is letter-perfect in their parts and the evening is a succession of laughs.

Garrick: Pauline Lord, fine actress, in "Anna Christie," a powerful play by Eugene O'Neill. The play is beautiful, the acting is superb, the cast is excellent. This is a proved success and one of the finest things we have ever seen. Recommended.

Poli's: Local amateur attractions.

STUDIO SLAVE SAYS:

Editor: "Are you the reporter that covered that Glee Club concert?"
Reporter: "Yes. Why?"
Editor: "Well, what is this boob trick you've done here—Among the most beautiful girls present was Billy Hamilton. Don't you know that Hamilton is a man not a woman?"
Reporter: "Yes; but that's where he was."

The Secret Finally Discovered.

We know now why they have kept that fence in front of Lisner Hall. So the little students can tie their little ponies outside.

Wonder if there was some hidden meaning to the fact that the Glee Clubbers tied lumps of coal to their banner on the Campus?

The Glee Club also gave demonstrations of how to fall up and down steps. None of them fell "flat," however.

Why not hire a hall and give a dance for the stags? Just let them race around the floor all they want and mill around as much as they see fit.

Coo-Coo.

Curran: "I'm in heaven when I dance with you!"
Blizzy Dond: "My, but I'm warm!"

"WORD MONGERS" and "CHATTERING BARBERS"

"Word mongers" and "chattering barbers," Gilbert called those of his predecessors who asserted that a wound made by a magnetized needle was painless, that a magnet will attract silver, that the diamond will draw iron, that the magnet thirsts and dies in the absence of iron, that a magnet, pulverized and taken with sweetened water, will cure headaches and prevent fat.

Before Gilbert died in 1603, he had done much to explain magnetism and electricity through experiment. He found that by hammering iron held in a magnetic meridian it can be magnetized. He discovered that the compass needle is controlled by the earth's magnetism and that one magnet can remagnetize another that has lost its power. He noted the common electrical attraction of rubbed bodies, among them diamonds, as well as glass, crystals, and stones, and was the first to study electricity as a distinct force.

"Not in books, but in things themselves, look for knowledge," he shouted. This man helped to revolutionize methods of thinking—helped to make electricity what it has become. His fellow men were little concerned with him and his experiments. "Will Queen Elizabeth marry—and whom?" they were asking.

Elizabeth's flirtations mean little to us. Gilbert's method means much. It is the method that has made modern electricity what it has become, the method which enabled the Research Laboratories of the General Electric Company to discover new electrical principles now applied in transmitting power for hundreds of miles, in lighting homes electrically, in aiding physicians with the X-rays, in freeing civilization from drudgery.

GEORGETOWN MEET OPENS G. W. TRACK SEASON

Any Candidates Who Have Not Reported, See Capt. Tolson at Once.

George Washington track athletes will be seen in action for the first time on February 21, at the Annual Indoor Relay Carnival of Georgetown University, to be held at Convention Hall. Captain Tolson's men have been working out hard at the Coliseum nearly every night.

The Track Team is very fortunate in having secured the services of "Tom" Probey as coach. Probey is a former Georgetown man and is thoroughly familiar with every phase of track work. He expects to turn out a team that will compete with the best in the South Atlantic Section.

Any candidates interested in track who have not yet reported, are urged to get in touch with Captain Tolson at Columbian College, or with Manager Tracy, at the Law School, as soon as possible.

As usual, the mid-year exams revealed to the professors some interesting facts that have never been seen in textbooks.

BUCKNELL DEFEATS G. W. IN LISTLESS CONTEST

Hatchettes Were Crippled by Loss of Springston and Goldstein.

Bucknell's strong quint defeated G. W.'s crippled team in a listless contest at the Coliseum last Friday night by the score of 36 to 21. Both teams showed lack of spirit, which stands out in most college games.

After two weeks layoff the Hatchettes took the floor minus several of its star men. Bailee Springston has a badly sprained hand and he witnessed the game from the sidelines. "Pat" Goldstein is under the weather, and Dally played the whole game, disregarding his bad condition.

G. W. battled on even terms with the Lewisburg aggregation all during the first half, which ended 14 to 13, in Bucknell's favor. At the start of the last half Bucknell caged three baskets in rapid fire order, and continued to climb away from the Hatchettes. Due to the great defense of the northerners, G. W. only registered one floor goal during the entire second half, and that one was tossed by Capt. Dally from the center of the court. Although the Bucknell men were pretty well played out after their engagement with C. U. the night before, they showed plenty of speed under the basket on following up shots. Their teamwork lacked pep, but it was done very cleverly.

Bunting, one of the Bucknell forwards, caged five baskets and Deitrich played a great game at guard. Gosnell and Klopsch played well for G. W., the latter also doing some good work from the 15 foot mark.

The line-up and summary:

Bucknell.	G. W.
Dayhoff . . . . . L. F. . . . .	Gosnell
Bunting . . . . . R. F. . . . .	Klopsch
Wilsbach . . . . . C. . . . .	Brown
Butler . . . . . L. G. . . . .	Dally
Deitrich . . . . . R. G. . . . .	Hyde

Floor goals, Dayhoff 3, Bunting 5, Wilsbach 4, Butler 2, Deitrich, Badman, Gosnell, Klopsch, Brown, Dally 2, Hyde. Foul goals, Bunting 2 in 5, Butler 2 in 5, Deitrich 0 in 1, Klopsch 9 in 18. Substitutions, Altrup for Brown, Badman for Butler, Butler for Bunting, Brown for Altrup. Referee, Hughes. Umpire, Metzler. Periods, 20-minute halves.

KENT STARS FOR FROSH AGAINST ST. ALBANS

Saturday's Game Makes Sixth Victory For G. W. Yearlings.

G. W.'s Freshmen basketballers made it their sixth game in seven starts last Saturday night, when they journeyed out to St. Albans and registered a 34 to 26 victory. The Frosh clearly outplayed the Cathedral boys, but found it very difficult to cope with the tricks of the odd floor.

At the start the St. Albans' tossers passed and dashed around the three big posts that were located in the middle of the gym, and used the four walls to such advantage that the Freshmen were somewhat dazed, but they gradually became acquainted with the play of their opponents and began to garner a few points. The score at the end of the first half stood 14 to 13, in G. W.'s favor.

In the second half the game became fast and furious, and both teams battled on even terms up to the last quarter, when the Hatchettes pulled away from St. Albans and kept a comfortable lead until the final whistle. Capt. Kent, of G. W., was the star of the fray; besides playing a good defensive game, he caged six floor goals.

The line-up and summary:

G. W. Frosh.	St. Albans.
Beeton . . . . . L. F. . . . .	Chatfield
Woerner . . . . . R. F. . . . .	Rite

G. W. WRESTLERS LOSE CLOSE MATCH TO V. M. I.

The George Washington wrestling team put up a good fight at V. M. I. last Saturday. G. W. lost out on points in each bout, the V. M. I. men having a slight edge on them each time. The decisions were close, however, so that our showing was good.

The 115 pound men were represented by Baggett, who lost out on points by a narrow margin. Clarence S. Bruce, captain of the team, wrestled against two classes, the 125 and 135 pound classes, representing two of the best of V. M. I.'s men. Roush, of the 145 pound class, was thrown after about five minutes, and Young, of the 158 pound class, after three. Ben Bailey represented the 175 pounders, and Tyler the heavy-weights.

The team will meet Washington-Lee on the 19th of February at the Coliseum.

PROFESSOR RECIPIENT OF NUMEROUS HONORS

Dr. Edward Elliot Richardson, professor of Philosophy, has a habit of acquiring honors, all in a bunch. Monday he delivered an address to the Baptist Disciples Ministers' Association on the subject of the "Relation of Philosophy to Theology," which was received enthusiastically, and is to be published. Last week he was elected president of the Congress Heights Citizens' Association, and earlier in the month elected to serve for his twelfth annual term as president of the Washington Society for Philosophical Inquiry. Incidentally, he has served as an executive of the latter body since 1911, the longest term ever accorded anyone.

Dr. Richardson graduated from the old Columbian University with the degree of M. D. in 1895, took the degree of B. S. in 1900, and one year later the degree of M. S. He was in the first graduating class of the University after the name was changed to George Washington. He received the degree of Ph. D. in 1904. He has been professor of Philosophy since 1912.

The University of Hawaii has organized a football team. The quarterback will most likely use a ukelele in giving out the signals.

The Best Business Career

Is what every ambitious senior is thinking about at the present time. Life insurance is one of the best, one of the most desirable, and one of the most satisfactory as a permanent calling.

In assets and volume of business, life insurance is one of the three leading businesses of this country, yet the field is comparatively under-developed. Only 7 per cent of the economic value of human life in the United States is covered by insurance. This gives an idea of the big field still to be worked, especially business insurance for firms and corporations.

As to remuneration: Reports of college graduates who have entered business indicate that life insurance is at the very top as a source of income. Now is the time for you to consider what you are going to do after graduation. If you are ambitious and willing to work hard and are interested to know about life insurance, address

DEAN FERSON ELECTED

Scholarship Only Requirement.The Faculty of the Law School entertained the newly elected Term Benchers of "The Benchers," the honorary fraternity, Tuesday, January 30, at a luncheon at The Cairo. The purposes and qualifications adopted by the order were briefly explained, and the historical significance of the name of the organization was set forth.The following officers were elected:
Dean Marton L. Ferson, of the Law School, was chosen "Principal," the presiding officer, and Frank S. Rowley, Law '23, was elected "Scribe." The following Law Seniors were elected Term Benchers: Joseph Jordan, Dan
Wheeler, Thomas K. Humphrey, Blake
E. Nicholson, Joseph W. Hazell, and Frank S. Rowley.The selection of Term Benchers is based upon the work of the first two years in the law school, 48 hours of work, with an average of "A," being required. At completion of the entire law course, any person who has made an average of "A," and whose average is within the high ten per cent of the graduating class, is elected to membership as a full-fledged "Bencher."The insignia of the order is a key in form of the fasces, surmounted by a wreath. Election is automatic, as the organization is strictly honorary, and depends solely on scholarship. Membership is open to persons of both sexes.RESIGNED TO ITS FATE;
